Overview

Katarina Dobsinska focuses on appellate litigation and trial support in federal and state courts. She handles all aspects of appeals, from initial case assessment through oral argument and beyond.

Prior to joining Carlton Fields, Katarina served as the senior law clerk to the Honorable Fleur J. Lobree of the Florida Third District Court of Appeal, where she handled a wide range of civil and criminal appeals.

Katarina received her J.D., summa cum laude, from Florida International University College of Law, where she graduated first in her class.
