

Carlton Fields Attorney Steven Blickensderfer Offers Cybersecurity Tips in South Florida Business Journal

July 05, 2019

Carlton Fields technology attorney Steven Blickensderfer was quoted in a South Florida Business Journal article about best practices in cybersecurity for small businesses. He discussed Carlton Fields' General Data Protection Regulation \(GDPR\) Assessment Tool, which helps clients determine whether the GDPR applies to their business and connects them with attorneys who can guide them through the new requirements.

"It's free to use and we built it for small businesses to ask the questions everyone who's doing this work is asking," Blickensderfer told the Business Journal.
