

Carlton Fields Attorneys Named Legal Leaders in 2019 “Legal Elite”

June 24, 2019

Florida Trend magazine recognizes 19 Carlton Fields attorneys in its 2019 “Florida Legal Elite” list. Five attorneys made the Legal Elite Hall of Fame, an accolade honoring those who consistently earn high rankings in Legal Elite surveys. And, one attorney earned the respect and votes of her peers in Florida Legal Elite’s “Up & Comers,” a section listing the top Florida attorneys under 40. Additionally, Carlton Fields ranks in the top five firms in Florida with the most women honorees.

The Legal Elite, now in its 16th year, recognizes respected Florida lawyers chosen by their peers through the magazine’s statewide attorney surveys. This year’s 1,126 attorney honorees represent less than 1.3% of practicing attorneys in Florida. The list includes lawyers from 527 law firms practicing in 72 Florida cities.

The following Carlton Fields attorneys are listed as 2019 Florida Legal Elite honorees, Hall of Fame inductees, and Up & Comers:

Miami

Edith G. Osman
Lee Stapleton

Tallahassee

Christine R. Davis
Nancy G. Linnan – Hall of Fame

Tampa

David P. Burke – Hall of Fame

Matthew J. Conigliaro

Fentrice D. Driskell

Scott D. Feather

Robert S. Freedman

Donald R. Kirk

Laura Jo Lieffers – Up & Comer

Ellen Koehler Lyons

Luis Prats

Jason J. Quintero

President and CEO Gary L. Sasso – Hall of Fame

Christopher Smart

Paul J. Ullom

Sylvia H. Walbolt – Hall of Fame

Gwynne A. Young – Hall of Fame