

Carlton Fields Nationally Ranked in Construction Executive's "The Top 50 Construction Law Firms"

June 01, 2023

TAMPA, FL – Carlton Fields ranked No. 18 nationally in Construction Executive's "Top 50 Construction Law Firms™" list. This is the second consecutive year the firm has ranked among the top firms and third year since 2019. Construction Executive ranks firms based on several factors, including revenue, the number of construction attorneys, the number of states in which the firm is licensed to practice, the age of the firm's construction practice, and the number of construction clients served in the past year. Launched by Associated Builders and Contractors in 2003, Construction Executive is a leading source for news, market developments, and business issues impacting the construction industry. Carlton Fields' national construction practice provides legal services on all aspects of construction from project inception to closeout. The group has extensive mediation and arbitration experience, as well as experience managing and litigating major construction cases at both the trial and appellate levels. Additionally, the group includes four lawyers who are fellows in the American College of Construction Lawyers, two in the American College of Real Estate Lawyers, several leaders in the ABA Forum on Construction Law, and nine who are board certified in construction law by the Florida Bar.
