

Carlton Fields Welcomes Summer Associate Class of 2019

May 29, 2019

Carlton Fields is pleased to welcome its 2019 Summer Associate Class. The firm's Summer Associate Program provides its class with opportunities to serve business clients in key industries, sharpen their real world legal skills, and cultivate purposeful relationships with firm colleagues and clients. Summer associates will participate in all aspects of the firm's practices, whether in the office, at a client meeting, or in the courtroom. Class members can also become involved in the firm's pro bono initiatives through engaging with local legal aid societies and taking part in Bar, civic, and community-oriented activities. This year, four distinguished law students from three law schools will spend the summer in the firm's Tampa; Washington, D.C.; and West Palm Beach offices, where they will continue their legal education and training, learn about practice areas and industry groups of interest, and work with designated mentors and other firm attorneys on meaningful assignments.

Carlton Fields Summer Associate Class of 2019 (By Office) Tampa

- Jacob C. Duvall – University of Florida Levin College of Law
- Cara C. Mannion – Vanderbilt University Law School

Washington, D.C.

- Stephen C. Boscolo - Georgetown University Law Center

West Palm Beach

- Katie L. Sadlo – University of Florida Levin College of Law

