

When High-Tech Cryptocurrencies Meet Low-Tech Scammers

September 27, 2017

Justin S. Wales, co-chair of Carlton Fields' Blockchain Technology and Virtual Currency practice, authored the Los Angeles Daily Journal article, "When High-Tech Cryptocurrencies Meet Low-Tech Scammers." The article discusses the threat of a security breach, which can occur in schemes such as a SIM-card swap con, for those holding cryptocurrencies and how to protect oneself from being scammed.
